

Supercharge your Microsoft Dynamics GP

Most companies only tap a fraction of the potential from the powerful business management software that could transform your operations.

Aren't all Microsoft Dynamics partners the same?

Something about these folks seems different.

Let's optimize!

A slightly tongue-in-cheek look at how Briware can change your business.

Manual processes slowing you down?

How embarrassing for her. They still use paper forms.

Automate!

We'll help you get the full value from Microsoft Dynamics GP modules to streamline cumbersome processes.

50 modules are available in Microsoft Dynamics GP 2013

Sparks in the budget meetings?

Your department's costs were up 15% last year.

That's not what we spent on materials last year. Where did that number come from?

Through an automated budget process, we'll help you reduce errors and include managers early in the review cycle to minimize friction.

Use 'em or loose 'em

Do you know if you are using the best or most current versions of the hundreds of ISV solutions available? We'll help you simplify processes with proven ISV solutions.

Get big on data

You may not need "big data" but you should be able to use the information you collect to make better decisions. Dashboards and graphic reports bring data to life, shedding light on trouble spots and opportunities that can transform your business.

Oh no!

Yeah, we just didn't see this trend coming.

Are we out of stock again?

Reduce daily frustrations

Do your people feel like they have to fight the system to get the information they need or complete simple tasks? With the right configuration and training, Dynamics GP can and will make work easier.

Gimmee that report NOW!!

POW

Wow, that's exactly the information that I needed. Thanks, Rod!
